

SOME INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT OUR TEACHERS!

Strange but true...

- “I am in fact an Advanced Scuba diver. Also, my Grandad sits in the House of Lords as Labour Peer. I've have also had a film win an award for the "Straight 8" film competition and be screened at Cannes Film festival.” – Mr Rutter, Drama Teacher
- “I used to work at Buckingham Palace.” – Ms Akehurst, Maths Teacher
- “I'm a classically trained singer.” – Miss Robinson, Maths Teacher
- “I took part in the British Gymnastics Championships as a teenager.” – Mr Harris, KS3 Director
- “I had an uncle and great granddad who were professional footballers.” – Mr Hill, Maths Teacher
- “I have sung and also played in an orchestra (not at the same time!) at the Royal Albert Hall.” – Mr Adsett-Knutsen, Teaching Assistant
- “I competed in the Tall ships 2000 race, sailing across the Atlantic ocean in a tall ship.” – Ms Chalcraft, Head of Science
- “Did you know that I once did 1,000 push-ups in a day, as a News Years resolution?” – Mr Robinson, MFL Teacher
- “I have seven dance world titles and eleven international dance awards.” – Ms Fenn, Head of English
- “I trained to be a silversmith before training to be a teacher!” – Miss Wild, Teacher of English

- “I was once South East Regional Disco Dancing Champion. I am also a qualified football referee and swimming judge.” – Mrs Key, Head Teacher
- “I am an equine enthusiast!” – Miss Sharp, Teacher of Science
- “I’m an instructor in the Sussex Army Cadet Force.” – Miss Batton, Teacher of PE
- “I speak only in French to my Mum and Dad. I also play tennis at a competitive level” – Ms Milland, Teacher of MFL
- “I am a children’s published author. If you click this link which will take you to some more information and activities related to my book. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TBxYWL3y63c&t=1s>” – Mr Atherall, Teacher of English